

Orville Simpson II: Victory City

University of Cincinnati, DAAP Galleries, October 17 - November 18, 2011

Orville Simpson II: Victory City

A unique exhibition featuring the work of Cincinnati native Orville Simpson II, self taught planner, architect, designer, and artist. The exhibit presents Mr. Simpson's vision for the development of future urban centers. This utopian metropolis design has been driven by Simpson's concern with urban sprawl, pollution and sustainability.

October 17th - November 18th, 2011

College of Design, Architecture, Art, and Planning
Philip M. Meyers Jr. Memorial Gallery
University of Cincinnati

